

FINAL: APA PAPER

(this whole paper should be in 12pt. font and double spaced)

**INCLUDE ON COVER PAGE****

TITLE OF PAPER

(make the title something interesting)

NAME

(your name)

SCHOOL AFFILIATION

(your school)

** (this whole paper should be in 12pt. font and double spaced)****

Research Topic/Question

***Copy and paste topic here.***

Hook (name this section, 14 pt font)

What is interesting about this topic? Put in an interesting fact OR tell a story about your own experiences that relate to this topic OR do you have your own interesting way to make the reader curious about this topic.

(Read through our class discussions for inspiration!!)

REMEMBER Research papers are not meant to be boring anymore, let's make it fun to read again!!!

Introduction Content Review (name this section, 14 pt. font)

Find content from our class (videos, papers, infographics, all that stuff I've posted as materials to review about the topic we are in) find facts about your topic and list the relevant facts from each one.

The content you want to use as a supporting fact:

1. According to AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

2. Another idea by AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) AUTHOR says..... about this topic.

***FIND YOUR OWN CONTENT THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OR COLLEGE'S LIBRARY, We will have a Zoom Conference about this with the library, please refer to the syllabus for time and date!! ***

3. Yet another idea to consider is AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

Source = Who wrote it

Date = When the article was written just the year, if you can't find it when it was written OR when you first read it)

Biology Content Review (name this section, 14 pt. font)

Find content from our class (videos, papers, infographics, all that stuff I've posted as materials to review about the topic we are in) find facts about your topic and list the relevant facts from each one.

The content you want to use as a supporting fact:

1. According to AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

2. Another idea by AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) AUTHOR says..... about this topic.

***FIND YOUR OWN CONTENT THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OR COLLEGE'S LIBRARY, We will have a Zoom Conference about this with the library, please refer to the syllabus for time and date!! ***

3. Yet another idea to consider is AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

Source = Who wrote it

Date = When the article was written just the year, if you can't find it when it was written OR when you first read it)

Cognitive Content Review (name this section, 14 pt. font)

Find content from our class (videos, papers, infographics, all that stuff I've posted as materials to review about the topic we are in) find facts about your topic and list the relevant facts from each one.

The content you want to use as a supporting fact:

1. According to AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

2. Another idea by AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) AUTHOR says..... about this topic.

***FIND YOUR OWN CONTENT THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OR COLLEGE'S LIBRARY, We will have a Zoom Conference about this with the library, please refer to the syllabus for time and date!! ***

3. Yet another idea to consider is AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

Source = Who wrote it

Date = When the article was written just the year, if you can't find it when it was written OR when you first read it)

Developmental Content Review (name this section, 14 pt. font)

Find content from our class (videos, papers, infographics, all that stuff I've posted as materials to review about the topic we are in) find facts about your topic and list the relevant facts from each one.

The content you want to use as a supporting fact:

1. According to AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

2. Another idea by AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) AUTHOR says..... about this topic.

***FIND YOUR OWN CONTENT THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OR COLLEGE'S LIBRARY, We will have a Zoom Conference about this with the library, please refer to the syllabus for time and date!! ***

3. Yet another idea to consider is AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

Social and Personality Content Review (name this section, 14 pt. font)

Find content from our class (videos, papers, infographics, all that stuff I've posted as materials to review about the topic we are in) find facts about your topic and list the relevant facts from each one.

The content you want to use as a supporting fact:

1. According to AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

2. Another idea by AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) AUTHOR says..... about this topic.

***FIND YOUR OWN CONTENT THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OR COLLEGE'S LIBRARY, We will have a Zoom Conference about this with the library, please refer to the syllabus for time and date!! ***

3. Yet another idea to consider is AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

Mental and Physical Health Content Review (name this section, 14 pt. font)

Find content from our class (videos, papers, infographics, all that stuff I've posted as materials to review about the topic we are in) find facts about your topic and list the relevant facts from each one.

The content you want to use as a supporting fact:

1. According to AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

2. Another idea by AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) AUTHOR says..... about this topic.

***FIND YOUR OWN CONTENT THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY OR COLLEGE'S LIBRARY, We will have a Zoom Conference about this with the library, please refer to the syllabus for time and date!! ***

3. Yet another idea to consider is AUTHOR (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date), the main idea about this subject is...

List the facts from this source (ONLY THIS SOURCE) that support this idea

1. Fact
2. Fact

\*You can use as many facts as you want, please reference at least 2. You can paraphrase (summarize in your own words) or quote, if you quote please use quotation marks.***

In conclusion, (author(s)'s last name in alphabetical order/source, date) says..... about this topic.

Research Review (name this section, 14 pt font)

If you were going to do a study on this subject, how would you do it? Talk about different research methods that we have explored in the first Unit alone with the research methods presented within this Unit.

In order to test this topic... this researcher will (describe a suitable way to test your ideas: survey, experiment, model, interview, etc.).

Conclusion (name this section, 14 pt font)

What have you learned about this subject? How did these authors change your mind or how are you more solidified in your own beliefs? Consider referencing their research methods and what your research methods would be... (to refresh on research methods look back to Module One: Intro, Unit: Research Method)

References

(name this section, 14 pt font)

All sources for our class have been cited properly in a PDF in the resources files and have an accompanied references listed. Your source will have to be inserted in alphabetical order and in APA format. Here are some websites that will do it for you!!!!